Internet Marketing is great because it doesn't matter whether you have a business, don't have a business, had a successful business and lost it all, or never had a business and never intend to have one! Internet Marketing is great for ALL people...even those who do not know how to use a computer properly.....yet!

Everyone in this industry has their own ideas of how easy or difficult it is to make money online. If you are a total beginner then you will go through days when you just feel like throwing in the towel. Hell, even experienced marketers get those days sometimes!

When those days come remind yourself why you are doing this.

- You are making these sacrifices because you are sick of taking orders from your moronic boss.
- You are making these sacrifices because you want to be in better control of your time so as you can spend more time with those you love.
- You are making these sacrifices because you want to be financially independent and not worry about whether you will be made redundant one day.
- You make these sacrifices because you want to be able to travel anywhere in the world while running your business online.
- You make these sacrifices because you want to create as close to a passive income as possible.
- You make these sacrifices because you want to make a ton of money.

NEWBIE BARE BONES BASICS

- You make these sacrifices because.....(FILL IN THE BLANK).

Your journey may not always be the fastest and easiest path but it will be life changing and totally worth all the effort. You can pave your own way to success one step at a time.

In A Nutshell:

- Work on your mindset.
- Have a plan and create a solid business model.
- Pick a market/niche/topic.
- Build a list.
- Create or offer a real service.
- Work on your traffic and conversions.
- Manage your money.
- Understand and deal with overwhelm.
- Work on your fears.
- Consistency is key.
- Focus, focus, focus.
- Continue to learn and educate yourself.
- Have fun with it!

So What Do You Do Now?

It does get easier

The early days are tough because you are learning and working and trying to earn. You will most likely do most of the work yourself to save on expenses. There will be good days and bad days but you WILL be progressing.

When you start to see earnings, reinvest that cash back into your business. It may be a little to begin with but if you are able to pay a couple of your monthly bills connected to your business then that is a very good start.

When you are able to pay all your business bills with your earnings and still have cash left over then it is time to outsource some work. Pick the areas of marketing that you do not enjoy or that you are just not good at and outsource them. This will free up more time to build on your business.

Keep building your business; always do something towards it each day, even if it is something small. Focus and take consistent action.

Always keep learning. Read blogs, take courses, keep track of what is going on in the world of the internet because things always change and they change fast.

Sometimes you will fail. When you fail, accept it, learn from it and move on. Program your mind to see failure as a learning process. All successful people have failed but it is how you deal with that failure that is important.

To your success!
